Pat Carey

Pat Carey retired from the Federal Aviation Administration on October 2, 2011, after over 38 years of federal service. During this time Pat worked as a Police Officer, Federal Air Marshal and Training Specialist before becoming a Personnel Management Specialist.

As a Training Specialist, she assisted in creating the retirement seminar that was used by all facilities in a seven state area.

For over 20 years, she specialized in Human Resources - counseling and assisting hundreds of employees and families with making decisions concerning regular retirements, disability retirements and death in service annuities.

Pat makes her home in Leesburg, VA.
